PayLess Drug Long Term Care Pharmacy Acquires
Senior Pharmacy in Eugene

Portland, Ore. — A successful Northwest long term care pharmacy will soon be expanding into Southern Oregon. PayLess Drug Long Term Care Pharmacy, a leading provider of pharmaceutical care for seniors, today announced the acquisition of Senior Pharmacy, LLC in Eugene, Ore. Senior Pharmacy is a provider of Long Term Care Pharmacy services to Skilled, Assisted and Adult Family homes in the Southern Oregon market.

Senior Pharmacy customers will join PayLess Drug's network and benefit from the services provided by the larger pharmacy, including improved drug ordering and delivering technology, expanded clinical expertise and additional consulting resources. PayLess Drug is committed to local ownership and customer service, and currently operates three pharmacies specializing in long term care in Oregon and Washington. PayLess Drug expects to retain the majority of current Senior Pharmacy staff.

"PayLess Drug is excited about the opportunity to have Senior Pharmacy join the PayLess team and we expect the Eugene location to help us provide enhanced, local service into Southern Oregon," said Ray Fitchette, President and Chief Executive Officer of PayLess Drug.

"I am impressed by the attitude and experience of the management team at Payless Drug," said Scott Berger, Business Director of Senior Pharmacy. "They know Senior Pharmacy is a good organization with great people and we are all happy to have this opportunity to take it to the next level."
